Insights and Updates on the 2nd American Revolution

AUGUST 2019

1. YOU ARE THE NEWS NOW.

On 10/28/2017, a mysterious character named Q appeared on the scene. Q's mission was to speak directly to American patriots who desired to see our country returned to her Constitutional foundations and her Judeo-Christian roots.

On 2/11/2019 in Q Post # 2689, Q confirmed to us that journalism as we have known it was dead and that we, the patriots, the ones who had been digging for the truth, were now "the news."

As you can see below in Q Post # 2884 dated 2/22/2019, Q continued to remind us that we are the ones now tasked with bringing forth the real stories, the facts, the actualities of the world around us.

2. WHO IS Q?

Today, 21 months after Q arrived, millions of Americans are still trying to answer that question. Is Q a person? A team? Where does Q get information? How is Q able to know about the future? Does President Trump know about Q?

Q's identity may never be known. Many believe that Q is actually a team of military intelligence people who have devised a way to communicate directly with whoever may be tuned in without having to depend upon traditional media outlets. In short, Q reached out to us to lead us onto our own personal path of discovery in the face of a failing media. For those who wish to know more about Q, the following Internet resources are recommended:

3. CATCHING UP ON THE STORY.

Much has happened in the 21 months since Q made the scene. It is not the intent of this newsletter to retell the first two years of this amazing story.

Those of us who have been following are privileged to have been watching what will likely become known as one of the most incredible stories to unfold in all of human history. If you have missed it, there are plenty of resources available to help you catch up. The following are recommended reading:

those who seek to understand the tumultuous times in which we now live.

4. THE STORYTELLERS.

Storytellers shape the cultures of our world. Be they a professor at a classroom lectern, a president at the bully pulpit, a newscaster at their anchor desk, a Hollywood screenwriter, a fiction author, a magazine editor, or a singer/songwriter, those who tell the stories determine the courses of nations.

We unconsciously take in messages all day long through the stories we hear in conversations, read in books or magazines, or view on television and film.

Stories shape our thinking. And if the messages in the stories sound a consistent theme, impacting large sectors of our population, our culture is likewise shaped. Thus, those who control the story, control the essence and makeup of culture.

So, why are we Christians largely off the grid in culture-shaping, storyteller roles? Why are THEY and not WE the ones “shepherding the narrative?”

5. THE MASTER STORYTELLER.

God is the ultimate, capital “S” Storyteller. His Word, the Holy Scriptures, overflows with stories. As storytellers ourselves, the best of our stories are the ones that are crafted using the same template from which God crafts His stories. The capital “S” Storyteller’s template is written in our hearts. That is why we can tell a good story from a bad story.

The “story” that we see unfolding before our eyes in daily news reports, presidential tweets and a plethora of voices from all across the landscape appears on it’s face to be a bad story. It is a story fed by hatred and littered with chaos and confusion. And it’s by-product is a flood of fear and negativity.

But here’s the good news. God, the Master Storyteller, is the One who has pre-written this story. And it is glorious. But due to the daily assault upon our eyes and ears by the ones who have historically been “shepherding” the nation’s narrative, we are inclined to fall prey to their daily negative message.

But Reader, take heart. The Famished Patriot invites you to discover the Master Storyteller’s unfolding story about the reclaiming of America’s Biblically-centered foundations. He is the One who has already written the story and is now, like a Broadway producer, rolling it out before our very eyes. It is up to us to decide if we are going to open them and behold the glorious pageantry unfolding before us.

Yes, at its core, the story unfolding before us is God’s story. The Master Storyteller has called us to assist Him in “shepherding” His narrative. But how can that be done unless we understand Him, His story and the times in which we live?

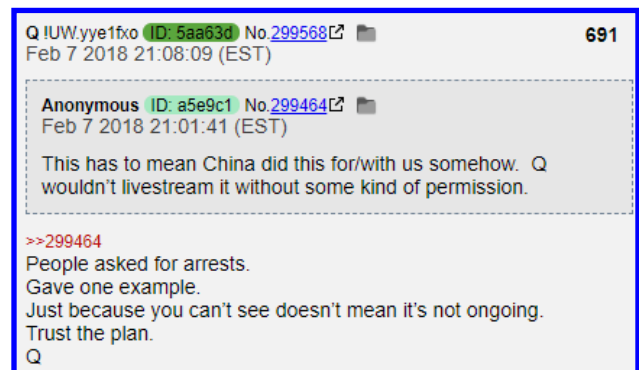

There is more on the horizon regarding His story and our work in the “shepherding” of it. But for the balance of this initial installment of Understanding the Times, we will first examine the idea of a battle plan and then jump back to Q and pick up the story as it unfolds in the waning summer weeks of 2019.

Read on...

6. TRUST THE PLAN.

Exactly 100 days after Q’s very first post, the phrase “Trust the Plan” surfaced on Q’s board for the first time. It happened on 2/5/2019 and again, two days later in Q post # 691. In the weeks and months that followed, Q reminded us 17 more times that there is a “plan” and that yes, we can trust it.

If you are wondering why these reminders are so important, consider this: Does a team of military leaders send their troops into battle without a strategy for victory? Of course not!

A good battle plan includes a well-crafted set of objectives with accompanying strategies, tactics, contingencies and the practice of deception.

Donald Trump's book, The Art of the Deal is rumored to have been based upon the Sun Tzu classic, The Art of War. From keen observation over the past two-and-half years it is clear that our president, and what is likely a team of military strategists, have been using the tools of war found in Sun Tzu's masterpiece.

Why is it so important that Q's followers know that there is a plan?

First, the knowledge of a plan instills confidence.

Second, the awareness of a plan inspires one to watch for signs that reinforce the belief that a plan is being carried out. What was once seen as random chaos and disorder is now seen as the ravages of purposeful conflict.

Third, as evidence of a well-crafted working plan grows, patriots are better equipped to see the battlefield from a bird's-eye perspective. The bird's-eye view also provides a clearer understanding of the many and varied battle-fronts engaged as well as the stakes involved.

Yes, we are at war. The war we fight is no less significant than WW II. On 6/28/1940, at the outset of the Battle of Britain, Winston Churchill broadcast a message to the British people. He said,

"...I expect that the Battle of Britain is about to begin. Upon this battle depends the survival of Christian civilization..."

Churchill's 80-year-old words are as on target today they were back then. We fight the same enemies and the stakes are just as high. Our war is not as noisy as WW II and it is easier to tune out. "Out of sight, out of mind" as they say.

We do not fight with the traditional weapons of war. Ours is a war of clashing ideologies. We fight to level the playing field so the two opposing narratives can compete fairly. We must, like our forebears and founders, "shepherd" the best ideas, the Judeo-Christian belief system and the Biblically-centered worldview that will determine the best future for the generations who will follow.

No swords or guns or bombs are visible in this war. Our weapons are truth confronting falsehood and the rule of law. Our battlefields are the public airwaves, the social media networks and the courts.

The good news is that our leaders have an amazing plan for victory and it is working. More on this theme will follow in upcoming issues.

Now, let's check out the battlefield of today.

7. DECLASSIFY.

The Current Situation

Q is a hint-dropper. Rarely is a direct and straightforward statement made. Q often uses riddles. Sometimes Q will offer a riddle and then solve it as seen in post # 3570.

[C] before [D].

[C]oats before [D]eclas. What does it mean?

On 7/29/2019, President Trump announced that Dan Coats, the Director of National Intelligence (DNI), would be stepping down.

On 8/1/2019, Q posted the riddle above indicating that Director Coats would have to step down before a flood of classified material could be declassified.

Dan Coats stepped down on 8/15/2019. Look what information became public on 8/16/2019, the day following Coats' departure.

But wait... On 8/14/2019, one day before Coats left office, Judicial Watch released over 300 documents they obtained through a FOIA request implicating Nellie Ohr of Fusion GPS and her husband, Bruce, a former Assistant Deputy Attorney General at the Department of Justice. Together, they schemed to push a fabricated story about then candidate Donald J. Trump.

✿ Understanding the Times ✿

The documents—generated in Sept. 2016, two months before the election—contained Nellie Ohr's notes regarding persons that her employer, Fusion GPS, was attempting to link to the Trump campaign to prove collusion with Russia. We now know the result of these notes and conversations as the infamous "Steele Dossier." Read about it here:

More... Nearly a week earlier, on 8/8/2019, Judicial Watch released the FOIA-obtained FBI 302 documents pertaining to Bruce Ohr's efforts both to advise and assist the FBI in their plan to frame Donald Trump.

These documents reveal the FBI's attempt to fabricate a crime to pin on President Trump, first to keep him from winning, and later to remove him from office. Read about it here:

The story, made public by the declassifications, reveals a desperate attempt by the Clinton campaign and its supporters in the intelligence community to create a crime that never happened. Q followers and others who have researched and read the materials recommended above have known about these treasonous acts for a good while. But now, with declassifications dribbling out, the door to the story has at last been opened to the public.

Expect more declassified material to come out including info on the crimes of James Comey, Jon Brennan and James Clapper.

We will also learn how 5 of our allies, Great Britain, Australia, Canada, New Zealand and Italy, assisted the DOJ, the State Department, the CIA and the FBI in their efforts to frame and remove Donald Trump from office.

The DOJ's Inspector General's report will be coming out soon (early September?) and reports indicate that a fair number of criminal referrals will be included.

Then we have US attorney, John Durham, who is investigating the origins of the Russia Collusion myth and false investigation. His report is expected to be released soon.

US attorney, John Huber in Utah has been investigating the criminal enterprise known as the Clinton Foundation for about 18 months. His report is forthcoming as well.

Now to the other major story breaking into the public consciousness.

8. THE EPSTEIN SAGA The Current Situation

SEX TRAFFICKING!!!

Arrested on July 6th of this year, Jeffrey Epstein was charged with sex trafficking of minors. It is a horrific crime no doubt, but Epstein's story is far bigger than it appears on the surface.

On Saturday morning, 8/10/2019, news broke that Jeffery Epstein was found dead in his jail cell. Almost as quickly as the story of his death hit the street, it was called a suicide. Naturally, conspiracy theories about what really happened popped up everywhere. We may never know the truth.

Over the last couple of years, news about the arrest of pedophiles, the breaking up of pedophile rings and the rescuing of children caught up in these abominable circumstances, has become more and more commonplace.

But what separates Jeffrey Epstein from the others arrested and charged with such crimes? Well for one thing Q has been posting about Jeffrey Epstein for almost two years. On the next page you will find a post from 2017. What do you see?

What else do you see? What is Q trying to tell us? What distinguishes Epstein's alleged crime from the others? Why is his story so "high profile"?

The crimes are widespread. And we have not even touched on the sex crimes and pedophilia that have been hidden for decades in Hollywood.

We are just getting started here.

9. DESPERATION.

What feeds the desperate frenzy to remove Donald Trump from office? Why were members of the FBI and the DOJ under Obama so hell-bent on taking him out as a candidate? Why did the mainstream news media spend two years pushing the collusion story when there never was any evidence? Why did Robert Mueller spend so much time and taxpayer money looking for an incriminating story to bring down the president? Why is the Democrat-led House of Representatives still looking for a reason to impeach President Trump? Why has the New York Times decided that they will now spend the months leading up to the 2020 election building the case that Donald Trump and his supporters are racist, white supremacists?

Read about it here:

Why are so many so desperate to keep Trump from winning a second term? Could it be that the "swamp" is so much deeper and the crime network is so much wider than we could ever have imagined?

9. IS THE STORM COMING, OR IS IT HERE?

On October 6th 2017, President Trump gathered at the White House with a group of military personnel. At the conclusion of the meeting Trump addressed the press corps with these words:

"You guys know what this represents? Maybe it's the calm before the storm."

Following his odd remarks, a reporter asked, "What's the storm?"

Without hesitation Trump replied, "It could be the calm, the calm before the storm."

Another reporter asked, "What's the storm?"

✿ Understanding the Times ✿

He responded, “You’ll find out.”
Watch the exchange for yourself:

The Calm Before the Storm

Or manually enter URL: <https://cutt.ly/mwff7IDb>

As noted earlier, the President’s peculiar message was delivered on 10/6/2017. It was twenty-two days later, on 10/28/2017 that Q’s first post showed up. Five days after Q began posting, the phrase “The calm before the storm” appeared on Q Post # 38 dated 11/2/2017.

Twenty-two months have passed since our president made his comment about the coming storm. Before these comments were ever made, Trump’s election had already created quite a storm. And the storm did not abate with his inauguration. In fact, in the months that have followed, the storm has only intensified. What does the future hold?

10. BACK TO THE STORYTELLERS.

So a story is unfolding. But who controls the story? For the Christian believer, the answer is quite clear. God, the Master Storyteller is, of course, the One who ultimately controls the story.

In our world created by a God who set things up with the component of free will, the battle between truth and error, good and evil, right and wrong, has raged on for millennia. As noted earlier in this publication, “... those who control the story, control the essence and makeup of culture.”

On 54 separate occasions, Q has encouraged us to “enjoy the show.” Q wants us patriots to believe that the good guys are in control this time.

For those who follow Q and believe in the veracity of the story Q is leading us to discover, a great confidence is growing with the passage of each day. But we have even more evidence to consider...

11. THE STIRRING OF GOD’S PEOPLE?

Have you been a part of the remnant of God’s people who have been interceding for this nation over the last 50 years? Are you even aware of the silent prayer warriors storming the gates of heaven daily, and for years on end, for God’s intervention and rescue of our crumbling nation?

Does God answer prayers?

Indeed he does! And upcoming issues of Understanding the Times will be exploring God’s words both to and through His prophets in these days of trouble. The topic of the prophetic voice in the 21st century is worth an entire book. In issues to come, Understanding the Times will provide some tools to set you on your own path of discovery.

12. IN SUMMARY.

A mysterious figure named Q arrived on the brink of a pending storm; a battle to the death of the storytellers and their narratives, one seeking to maintain their control, the other seeking to supplant our enemy's narrative; a failed attempt by unelected government officials to illegally remove a sitting president from office (TREASON); the emergence of a growing collection of stories about massive sex abuse and the trafficking of innocent women and children.

Reader, we are looking at the very tip of the iceberg. This emerging story is clearly one of good versus evil. It has just begun to break through the surface and come into the daylight.

All around us a war is raging. Do we see it? Do we care? Will turning a blind eye make it go away? Are we content with retreating into our comfort zones of personal peace and prosperity? Do we wish to remain living in the land of the undisturbed?

Multitudes, multitudes, in the valley of decision!
Joel 3:14

What if we discovered that the republic
we thought we had, the people we thought represented us, and the history we learned in school, were not exactly as they appeared to be?

Whose Stories
Do You Follow?

I am a famished patriot. The hunger pangs first appeared in the early 1980's. In the first months of the Reagan era, my pastor began to teach Biblical Worldview from the pulpit. He also introduced me to the Puritans and to the Christian foundations of our American republic. I have been on a quest for nourishment ever since.
