1. RED PILL / BLUE PILL

You may have been asked the question, “Have you (or they) been red pillled?”

Many people will remember the Red Pill / Blue Pill schema from the film The Matrix. The Matrix Red Pill metaphor is being used today to highlight the awakening that many are having as they break free from one paradigm and gravitate toward another.

The subconscious paradigm we are leaving behind is the hazy mindset of being imprisoned in a world where others control outcomes and we have little power to change things.

Consider for example our national debt. From the mid 20th century to the present day, our national debt has increased by over 21 trillion dollars or 8,264%. No matter who we elect to represent us, the debt continues to grow. And this is but one example of many. Our nation, founded upon the principle of a government owned and managed by “We the People,” is now in the hands of an elite group of wealthy and powerful souls who have no interest whatsoever in relinquishing their control.

par•a•digm

A paradigm is a standard, perspective, or set of ideas. A paradigm is a way of looking at something.

Understanding the Times has been created to assist those who seek to understand the tumultuous times in which we now live.

Think again of The Matrix. Yes, we vaguely realize that we are trapped, and that our captivity appears to be inescapable. If we swallow the Blue Pill, which most of us have done for generations, we willingly embrace the idea that even though we are trapped, we can still exist in the world we have been given. After all, we do enjoy the many benefits of a relatively comfortable life. Our prosperity has provided us with a plethora of pleasures to keep us occupied. We are fed well, clothed comfortably, and entertained excessively.

And perhaps, our “owners” are content keeping things this way.

Meanwhile, where did that 21 trillion dollars go? Do we know? Do we even care? Or are we simply too preoccupied with our own stuff to realize that those 21 trillion dollars have been “stolen” from us and now line the pockets and bank accounts of thousands of people in positions of power and influence.

“Stolen”? You say?

Yes. Some day the debt collectors will come calling. And guess whose door they’ll be knocking on. If not us, it will be our children or grandchildren.

The Blue Pill still reigns over much of our land. We continue on in our blissful ignorance, unwilling to even consider that things are not what they appear to be. We are captives cooperating with those who craft the stories that keep us chained to our false paradigms.

On the other hand, those who have taken the Red Pill understand that over the decades we Americans have had our liberty slowly stripped away from us. The theft of our ability to govern ourselves came so quietly, so methodically, that we barely took notice. Like the proverbial par-boiling-frog-in-the-pot, we did not realize what was happening to us until it was too late ... well ALMOST too late.

Red Pilled Christians are coming to understand that in response to the countless prayers of hundreds of thousands of America-loving intercessors, God has recently appeared on the scene with a plan. He is a covenant keeper after all, and despite our covenant-breaking ways, He remains faithful.

Have you already swallowed the Red Pill? If not, would you consider swallowing it? Or are you firmly bound to a long-held paradigm? Red Pillers must be willing to face the idea that the facts of history could perhaps be different than what we have been taught. What kind of discomfort would you be willing to embrace to consider that Presidents Lyndon B. Johnson, George H.W. Bush, William J. Clinton, George W. Bush and Barack H. Obama have all betrayed us, that some of their acts might even rise to the level of treason?

Q has posted the word TREASON 15 times since April, 2018. Here's just one example:

Is the CIA a trustworthy agency? Are there rogue operators within the organization? If so, how long have the rogue elements been operating in secret? Could the CIA have had a role in the assassination of President Kennedy? What motive could be behind such a dastardly crime? Was he on to their criminal activities? Did you know that a young CIA man, George H.W. Bush, is alleged to have played a role in JFK's murder? Sounds like a "jump the shark" moment, doesn't it? Read on...

On April 27, 1961, just 97 days into his presidency, President John F. Kennedy delivered a speech to the American Newspaper Publishers Association. It is held by many that this particular speech is what led to his assassination. Here are a few quotes from his speech:

"We are opposed around the world by a monolithic and ruthless conspiracy that relies primarily on covert means for expanding its sphere of influence—on infiltration instead of invasion, on subversion instead of elections, on intimidation instead of free choice, on guerrillas by night instead of armies by day.

"It is a system which has conscripted vast human and material resources into the building of a tightly knit, highly efficient machine that combines military, diplomatic, intelligence, economic, scientific and political operations.

"Its preparations are concealed, not published. Its mistakes are buried, not headlined. Its dissenters are silenced, not praised. No expenditure is questioned, no rumor is printed, no secret is revealed."

Countless hours of research have gone into the Understanding the Times newsletters. The Famished Patriot is a believer in the Deep State, the Swamp, the Cabal, and the almost successful New World Order which is now being methodically and artfully dismantled. Many thanks are owed to the long-hidden patriots who planned and trained and prepared. They, along with hundreds of patriot, citizen journalists arose to reclaim our liberties. And how about our unflappable president who seems to fear nothing?

The establishment elite, those thieves, now tremble in fear, terrified of what is about to come down on them. Have you noticed how so many of them are coming unglued? They know the tables have been turned, that their number will soon come up, and that they will have to pay the piper.

To take the Red Pill means that you want to know the truth, no matter what it may cost. It means you cast off your fear of the truth. You reject your natural tendency to shrink back into living in the escapist world you have built for yourself.

These are tough words and confrontational thoughts. Please understand that we ALL have been intentionally conditioned, programmed by those holding power. That would be the news media, academia at all levels including public schools as early as first grade, television, film, much of the music we listen to ... The list could go on but you get the idea.

Taking the Red Pill comes from a willingness to have our paradigm reconstituted, to face the possibility that perhaps there are things we are missing or failing to see. It is frightening and downright scary. We might be labeled a “conspiracy theorist” after all.

Nearly every day, more and more of those in the dark are being brought into the light. If you are paying any attention at all, you must be aware that a battle is well underway. And just so you will know, what Understanding the Times has presented so far contains far less of the dark, evil and wicked things that still remain behind the curtain. Whether we like it or not, we will soon have to deal with matters that will shake us to the core. You can remain hiding in the shadows, or begin to become informed. If you don't know where to start, keep reading. You will find resources to aid you ahead.

2. FIVE EYES (FVEY)

On March 5, 1946, a few months following the close of WWII, the U.S. & Great Britain entered into an “Intelligence Alliance.” Their agreement to share intelligence was dubbed UKUSA. Canada joined the group in 1948 and Australia and New Zealand entered the alliance in 1956.

The original treaty between Great Britain and the United States includes the following language which essentially lays out the alliance's mission:

“the parties agree to the exchange of the products of the following operations relating to foreign communications: collection of traffic, acquisition of communication documents and equipment, traffic analysis, cryptanalysis, decryption and translation, acquisition of information regarding communication organisations, practices, procedures, and equipment.”

During WWII, well before the digital age, Great Britain and the US worked very closely together in their intelligence-gathering operations as they spied on the Nazis and the Japanese. In the years that followed, communication technology evolved from the high-frequency radio signals of the WWII era to the satellite and microwave relay stations of the sixties. As the decades unfolded, and the age of mobile and cell phone service came into play, the tools and methods of intelligence gathering likewise became leaner, quicker and more powerful.

For many years the affiliation of these five English speaking countries, sharing common roots in Great Britain's history and culture, operated in secret. So secret was the agreement that Australia's prime minister did not even learn of it until 1973. The alliance finally became public in 2005 and in 2010 the full text of the document which formed the organization was released by British and American governments.

Following the “Five Eyes” lead, several European nations created a similar alliance. Denmark, Norway, France, the Netherlands, Germany, Italy, Sweden, Belgium and Spain formed a group called the “Nine Eyes.” Now working together with the “Five Eyes,” the larger alliance is known as the “Fourteen Eyes.”

Recent reports tell of U.S. Attorney General William Barr and U.S. Attorney John Durham making overseas trips to meet with intelligence officials abroad regarding their investigations into the origins of the Russia collusion allegations against the 2016

SPYING ON EACH OTHER!!!

Understanding the Times

Trump campaign which ultimately spawned the Mueller Investigation.

Both Barr and Durham have been working with leaders in Italy, the U.K. and Australia to get to the bottom of what assistance their intelligence agencies may have provided to our own, rogue intelligence people in their quest to both find evidence of law-breaking by the 2016 Trump campaign and to “frame” Trump campaign workers and eventually Trump himself.

In the days to come, be on the lookout for the name “Joseph Misfud.” Misfud has been touted as a Russian agent and is alleged to have worked with Russia in an attempt to influence the 2016 election in Trump’s favor. Evidence however leads investigators to believe that Misfud works exclusively for Western agencies.

What is the significance of this information? It rolls out like this: If Misfud proves to be a Western asset, then his 2016 meeting with Trump campaign aide George Papadopolous, and his failed attempt to pass damning information to him on Hillary Clinton, likely proves that our “Five Eyes” and “Fourteen Eyes” partners were in on the attempted takedown of Donald Trump.

This is but one of several reasons why Barr and Durham have been working with our allied nations to uncover the truth. And this is why, on May 11, 2018, Q began posting the acronym FVEY (see below, left).

3. COUP D’ETAT/COUNTER COUP

Exactly seven days prior to the 2016 presidential election, on Tuesday, November 1, 2016 to be precise, a 4 minute and 9 second video clip titled The Hillary Clinton Takeover of the United States, appeared on YouTube. The speaker on the screen was Dr. Steve Pieczenik, MD, PhD. His credentials are lengthy and are linked below.

Dr. Pieczenik’s message was clear and unapologetic. A coup d’état of the U.S. government had taken place.

Pieczenik then went on to explain how a team of people from the intelligence community, along with the help of other patriots from various backgrounds and connections, effected a counter-coup.

definition

✿ Understanding the Times ✿

One week later, Donald J. Trump was elected president of the United States.

One year later, on October 28, 2017, a messenger known as Q—likely a U.S. military intelligence operation—arrived on the scene to start laying out clues and hints and riddles to help patriotic Americans understand how the battle to save our country from “Deep State” criminals was well under way in the shadows and out of the view of most Americans.

But there is much more to the story.

Who can say for certain when this attempt to take over our country actually began? Did it just begin recently with Bill and Hillary as Dr. Pieczenik noted in his video? Or did it begin in the mid-1960’s with groups like The WeatherMen?

Or perhaps the mischief began in the early 1950’s with the launch and the subsequent abuses of Operation Mockingbird by the CIA. Here’s a quote from the article linked above:

[Operation Mockingbird] “was an alleged large-scale project undertaken by the CIA beginning in the 1950s in which they recruited American journalists into a propaganda network. The recruited journalists were put on a payroll by the CIA and instructed to write fake stories that promoted the views of the intelligence agency.”

Kara Goldfarb
March 12, 2018

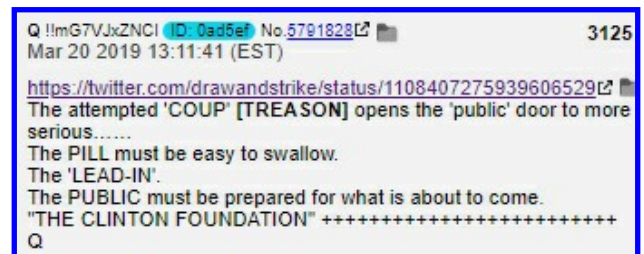

Or maybe not. Perhaps the slow and subtle takedown of the United States has more to do with the control of money than anything else. On December 23, 1913, the Federal Reserve Act was implemented under President Woodrow Wilson. The Federal Reserve Bank in the U.S. is part of a system of Central Banks throughout the world. Are these worldwide banking operations controlled by a network of sinister players whose ultimate goal is to bankrupt the world and control all the world’s riches? Here’s a quote from the article linked above right:

“Central banks are specifically designed to trap nations in debt spirals from which they can never possibly escape.”

Tyler Durden
June 10, 2015

Or does the story of our nation’s slow and silent takeover reach even further into the past? Just how far back might we have to search to discover where the treachery began?

Yes, America has suffered under a silent, gradual, systematic, well crafted, coup d’état. It happened right under our noses. A small band of a few thousand wealthy, influential businesspeople and political leaders just about stole this country away from the American people. We watched it happen and did virtually nothing.

4. STATIC IN THE AIR ... OR ... THE LAY OF THE LAND

“The Lord saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every intention of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. And the Lord regretted that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him to his heart. So the Lord said, ‘I will blot out man whom I have created from the face of the land, man and animals and creeping things and birds of the heavens, for I am sorry that I have made them.’ But Noah found favor in the eyes of the Lord.” (Genesis 6:5-8 ESV).

Turn your radio dial to America’s cultural frequency and tune your ear to what’s coming in over the airwaves. What do you hear? Are you picking up the stories of failed marriages, neglected children, drug abuse, suicide, homelessness, rape, murder and other violent crimes?

Let’s not forget abortion, adultery, fornication, pornography, same-sex marriage and the gender fluidity nonsense which are among the many rancid fruits of a nation in rebellion against God. How much does immoral behavior add to our already noise-infested airwaves?

What about theft, robbery, fraud, graft, blackmail, extortion? Can you think of other crimes? How many dysfunctional American lives could there possibly be?

Surely you are aware of the 22 trillion dollars ($22,000,000,000.00) of debt we Americans have incurred. Have you noticed how our federal government has become overly-bloated with bureaucrats? What is the taxpayer’s bill for all of these people?

And where is Congress? Will they ever get anything accomplished? Why are we still paying them?

More lists of human-based aberrations could be added, but by now you should be seeing the big picture. Do you sense the oppression over our land? Or have you grown so accustomed to it that you no longer recognize the airborne contaminations that feed and lead American culture?

Questions must be asked. How well do we really understand the times in which we live? Do we have a truly clear picture of God’s intention for culture in His master plan? How is culture shaped and formed?

Should we not all be equipped to answer questions such as these?

The plethora of dysfunctionalities listed above came from somewhere. But where? How?

Has the Church effectively performed her role? Consider the following:

We failed to effectively preach the kingdom (government) of God. We miscarried the lessons of covenant. We neglected teachings on obedience. We allowed the New Testament to be separated from the Old. We marginalized the Ten Commandments. We failed to explore the nature and character of God. We overvalued God’s grace and mercy and undervalued His righteousness and judgment. We played down the cross as a way of life, and the cost of true discipleship.

We declined opportunity to engage in the public square. We taught (or by neglect to teach implied) that culture belongs to the devil. We largely, though not completely, abandoned our children to the leftist, brainwashing mills of public education. We sent our children off to universities headed by godless socialists. We fed ourselves on pop culture. We valued relevancy more than Truth. We pursued our “feel good” experiences with God more than the teachings of His Word. We neglected the cultivation of our own minds with sound Biblical doctrine. We became fat and happy Americans and tuned out the hard words of Scripture. Yes, there is much static in the air!

What role have we, the Church, played in allowing all of this squalid noise to enter our atmosphere?

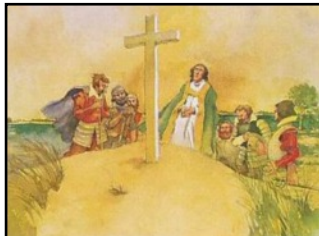

5. OUR COVENANT-KEEPING GOD

In early October of 2016, about a month prior to the 2016 election, Dutch Sheets, a well-known conference speaker and respected prophetic voice in Charismatic circles, sensed that God was calling him to take a team of thirteen intercessors (including himself) and visit several historic, colonial-era sites where God's people dedicated themselves to the furtherance of the gospel in this new land. Their journey came to be known as "Retracing America's Covenant Roots."

Among the stops they made are:

- Cape Henry, Virginia. On April 26th of 1607, an Anglican minister named Robert Hunt, along with a group of English settlers, planted a wooden cross at Cape Henry to mark their arrival in the New World. He then led his flock in prayer with these words:

"From these very shores the Gospel shall go forth to not only this New World but the entire world."

- Jamestown, Virginia. Two-and-a-half weeks later, on May 14th these same settlers selected a spot along the James River where they set out to establish what they hoped would become the first permanent English settlement in the New World. They named it Jamestown.

In the days that followed, Rev. Hunt led the group daily in the following prayer and dedication: "Almighty God, ... we beseech Thee to bless us and this plantation which we and our nation have begun in Thy fear and for Thy glory ... and seeing, Lord, the highest end of our plantation here is to set up the standard and display the banner of Jesus Christ, even here where Satan's throne is, Lord, let our labour be blessed in labouring for the conversion of the heathen. ... Lord, sanctify our spirits and give us holy hearts, that so we may be Thy instruments in this most glorious work."

- Plymouth, Massachusetts. We are all familiar with the story of the Pilgrims, their trip across the Atlantic on the Mayflower, and the first Thanksgiving with the Native American people. But how much do we know about their actual purpose and mission in sailing across the Atlantic Ocean and planting themselves at Plymouth?

Time and space do not permit room for that story. However, on the Monument for the Founding Fathers in Plymouth we find the following words from William Bradford: "Thus out of small beginnings greater things have been produced by His hand that made all things of nothing, and gives being to all things that are; and, as one small candle may light a thousand, so the light here kindled hath shone unto many, yea in some sort to our whole nation. Let the glorious name of Jehovah have all the praise!"

- Boston, Massachusetts. Ten years after the arrival of the Pilgrims, the first wave of Puritans entered into Massachusetts Bay. Eleven ships strong, the Puritans came with a big vision. Before they began disembarking, their leader, John Winthrop, stood on the deck of the lead ship, the Arbella and declared the Puritan purpose. He said: "For we must consider that we shall be as a city upon a hill. The eyes of all people are upon us. So that if we shall deal falsely with our God in this work we have undertaken, and so cause Him to withdraw His present help from us, we shall be made a story and a by-word through the world."

- Faneuil Hall, Boston. From its early beginnings as a large market building in 1742, this historic landmark eventually became known as the "Cradle of Liberty." A growing discontent with Great Britain brought many passionate patriots to the building's second floor meeting hall, a room of 100 feet in length by 40 foot in width. This 4,000 square foot room became the scene for passionate speeches, rigorous debates and many heartfelt prayers as the patriots navigated the Stamp Act of 1765, the Boston Massacre of 1770 and the Boston Tea Party of 1773.

- Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Dubbed the "City of Brotherly Love," Philadelphia is home to many a waypost along America's road to freedom.

Philadelphia's Liberty Bell (1751) hosts an engraved Scripture passage from Leviticus 25:8 which reads "Proclaim LIBERTY throughout all the Land unto all the inhabitants thereof."

From 1791 to 1800 the U.S. Supreme Court met in the Old City Hall.

The first Continental Congress met in Carpenter's Hall (1774). Our Declaration of Independence (1776) and our nation's Constitution (1787) were both debated on and approved in what has come to be known as Independence Hall.

It was in this very hall on June 28, 1787, as debate over our new system of government went on with virtually no progress, that a frustrated Deist named Benjamin Franklin rose from his seat, and proclaimed, "I have lived, Sir, a long time, and the longer I live, the more convincing proofs I see of this truth- that God Governs in the affairs of men. And if a sparrow cannot fall to the ground without his notice, is it probable that an empire can rise without his aid? We have been assured, Sir, in the sacred writings, that 'except the Lord build the House they labour in vain that build it.' I firmly believe this; and I also believe that without his concurring aid we shall succeed in this political building no better, than the Builders of Babel."

A few days after Franklin's bold request, daily prayers began to be offered up. The committee approved the final version of the new Constitution on September 17, 1787.

- Penn Treaty Park, Philadelphia. Sitting on the North bank of the Delaware River about two miles NE of Philadelphia's Independence Hall, Penn Treaty Park commemorates the historic treaty made between Pennsylvania's Governor, William Penn, and Chief Tamanend of the Lenape tribe. Of the many treaty-making colonial leaders of his day, Quaker William Penn is venerated as the one leader whose most gracious ways led to the most successful treaty between Christian white men and Native Americans.

No official record of the lauded agreement cut in 1683 remains, but history tells us that the treaty was kept for almost one-hundred years.

At that history changing gathering in the small village of Shackamaxon, words were exchanged and promises made. William Penn proclaimed that, "We meet on the broad pathway of good faith and good-will; no advantage shall be taken on either side, but all shall be openness and love. We are the same as if one man's body was to be divided into two parts; we are of one flesh and one blood."

Chief Tamanend followed. "We will live in love with William Penn and his children as long as the creeks and rivers run, and while the sun, moon, and stars endure."

Penn Treaty Park, and the story it preserves, serves as a powerful reminder of what the love of Christ can do in the souls of men when He is allowed to rule in their hearts.

- Colonial Courthouse, York, Pennsylvania. The Revolutionary War Battle of Brandywine on September 11, 1777 led to the British capture of Philadelphia. Forced to flee, the members of the Second Continental Congress left Philadelphia and eventually landed in York, Pennsylvania. In the months that followed, the men of the Second Continental Congress labored diligently, finalizing their work on June 27, 1778 with the ratification of the Articles of Confederation. This document, penned and approved in the York Courthouse, became the first official binding agreement between the 13 colonies and carried our new nation through the Revolutionary War.

Several years before their 2016 tour, team leader Dutch Sheets had sensed a call from God to proclaim a message from the Lord that God was not finished with America quite yet. His pursuit of this call led him to discover a long-forgotten flag from the Revolutionary period known as the “Appeal to Heaven” flag. The story of this flag will be told in another issue of Understanding the Times.

Meanwhile, back to the team’s visit to the York County Courthouse. Entering a room in the courthouse, the prayer team members quickly noticed a large collection of flags. Among them hung the “Appeal to Heaven” flag that Dutch had come to treasure as a Sign God Himself was indeed guiding and overseeing the work that he and his team were about to conclude.

Each story told above represents a stop on the route taken by Dutch Sheets and his team of intercessors along America’s East Coast as they visited key colonial-era sites where the history of our nation’s founding began.

Why is this important and what does it have to do with “understanding the times” in which we live today?

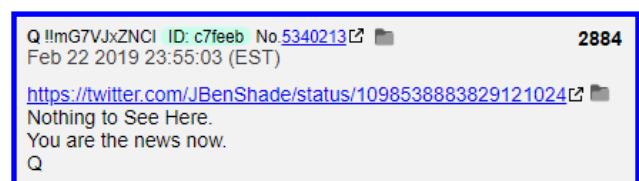

This newsletter is subtitled “A Story About the 2nd American Revolution.” The 2nd American Revolution in which we find ourselves today has come about because of the prayers of millions who want to see our nation returned to her original roots, her Judeo-Christian foundations.

America’s break with Great Britain in the 1770’s and the subsequent Revolutionary War came about largely because of America’s first Great Awakening which occurred in the earlier decades of the 18th century. Christians of that era cried out to God, just as we are today. There is a parallel.

Dutch Sheets, the intercessory prayer team leader in the above-described Autumn of 2016 East Coast prayer tour, calls this work a “return to the ancient paths.” The condensed story of his team, the various intercessory prayer stops and the accompanying narratives of their encounters should strike a chord with every Christian American patriot.

The unfolding story of our time is that of a nation in the midst of a battle. We are still in the early stages. But we are on the road to liberation from what appeared to be certain tyranny. Let us renew our understanding of our nation’s birth and renew our commitment to follow the “ancient paths” back to true liberty. And along those paths, let us remember that ours is a covenant-keeping God.

Hopefully you recall the first issue of Understanding the Times and the first brief article titled “You are the News Now.” As we have learned, the American news media is no longer a trusted source of sound and factual information.

On page 5 of this newsletter, the term “Operation Mockingbird” is briefly noted. And on page 10 you will find Q, in post no. 3613, discussing the media by-product of “Operation Mockingbird” and it’s power

As noted above, all of these deep divers for truth can be found through your favorite search engine. All can be found on Twitter as well, and many can be found on Facebook.

For those particularly interested in learning more about the dark pedophile industry, the following sources are recommended:

- Tiffany Fitzhenry
- Corey Lynn
- Liz Crokin
- Sheila Zalinsky

Do your own research. Keep up with Q posts on qmap.pub or qanon.pub. Learn to connect the dots.

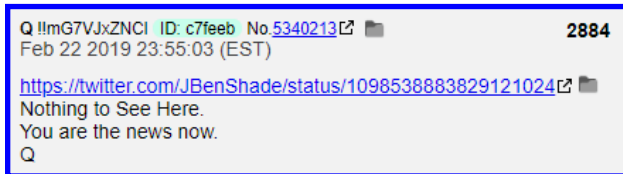

Understanding the Times

The more you become personally involved in your own research, the clearer the picture will become for you.

You might also consider joining one of the following Facebook groups. There are many groups engaged in sharing their research and findings. Belonging to a group also helps in sorting out the legitimate sources from the frauds. A lot of disinformation fills the “airwaves” as well. Worthy Facebook groups to consider:

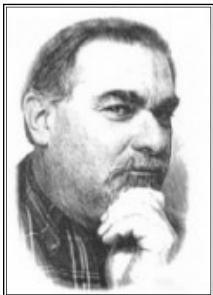

- Inquiring Ninjas (Christ - centered & favorite)
- C-Vine News Group
- QAnon & Great Awakening
- QAnon News & Updates

Until next time

“...from Issachar, men who understood the times and knew what Israel should do—200 chiefs, with all their relatives under their command...”

I Chronicles 12:32”

I am a famished patriot. The hunger pangs first appeared in the early 1980's. In the first months of the Reagan era, my pastor began to teach Biblical Worldview from the pulpit. He also introduced me to the Puritans and to the Christian foundations of our American republic. I have been on a quest for nourishment ever since.
